

Life, Liberty & Equality—Canadian Style: The interplay between sections 7 and 15 of the Charter

Friday, February 27, 2015
 Victoria College
 University of Toronto
 Rooms: Alumni Hall, 101 & 115

Symposium Schedule

8:30-9:00 am	Registration and Coffee – Alumni Hall
9:00-10:30 am	Plenary: Assessing Discriminatory Effects – Alumni Hall
10:30-11:00 am	Break
11:00 am – 12:30 pm	Concurrent Panels
	Protecting Vulnerable Groups – Room 101	Section 7 versus Section 15 – Room 115
12:30-2:00 pm	Lunch Plenary: Carter v AG Canada – U of T’s Legal Experts Comment on the Decision -- Alumni Hall Trudo Lemmens, Hamish Stewart, Sophia Moreau, Carol Rogerson, David Schneiderman, Denise Reaume

PLENARY: ASSESSING DISCRIMINATORY EFFECTS, 9:00 -10:30 AM

Mary Eberts, Eberts Law & Kim Stanton, LEAF

The Disappearance of Systemic Discrimination from Canadian Equality Jurisprudence

Hart Schwartz, Office of the Attorney General for Ontario

Circularity, Tautology and Gamesmanship: “Purpose” based Proportionality-Correspondence Analysis in Sections 15 and 7 of the Charter

Ranjan Agarwal & Faiz Lalani, Bennett Jones LLP

Redefining the Scope of Judicial Notice under Sections 7 and 15 of the Charter

CONCURRENT SESSIONS, 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM

ROOM 101: PROTECTING VULNERABLE GROUPS

Shaun O’Brien, Cavalluzzo Shilton McIntrye & Cornish LLP, Amanda Dale, Barbra Schlifer Commemorative Clinic, & Nadia Lambek, Cavalluzzo Shilton McIntrye & Cornish LLP

Protecting Marginalized Groupd under Section 7: A Case Study of the Barbra Schlifer Clinic’s Challenge to the Repeal of the Long Gun Registry

Karen Spector, Barrister, Mercedes Perez, Swadron Associates & C. Tess Sheldon, University of Toronto

The Interplay between Sections 7 and 15 of the Charter in Challenges to Mental Health Legislation

ROOM 115: SECTION 7 VERSUS SECTION 15

Kiran Kang, Osgoode Hall Law School & Sonia K. Kang, University of Toronto

Discriminating Against Discrimination: Reluctance to Advance Equality rights under Section 15 versus 7

Kim Potter, Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP

Choice and the Charter